

Dear Members,

Values shape who we are and how we lead. They influence everyday leadership choices, often more than policies or processes.

In many organisations, values are visible on walls and websites. What matters is how they show up in practice:

- Are corporate values truly authentic?
- What happens when personal and organisational values are misaligned?
- How do leaders embed values into everyday leadership?

EMCC Cyprus Spring Event will focus on: Values in Action: Leadership Beyond Words.
