CYPRUS COUNCIL FOR THE RECOGNITION OF
HIGHER EDUCATION QUALIFICATIONS (KY.S.A.T.S.)

12 July, 2024

Laura Ricci
Head of the Institution
European Higher Education Institution
Dragonara Business Centre, 5th floor
St Julian's STJ 3141 Malta

Dear Ms Ricci,

Master in Instructional Design for Online Education

The Council would like to thank you for the information submitted regarding the above mentioned programme offered by the European Higher Education Institute, in Malta, through the distance learning method.

The Cyprus Council for the Recognition of Higher Education Qualifications (KY.S.A.T.S.), after examining the information provided, in conjunction with the legislation and the regulations that govern the Council's operation, is pleased to inform you that the programme "Master in Instructional Design for Online Education" offered by the European Higher Education Institute, through Distance Learning, meets the requirements of the Law and the Regulations of KY.S.A.T.S. so that the relevant qualifications may potentially be recognized with respect to equivalence.

Please note that recognition of qualifications is examined on two parallel paths by assessing:

- (i) the level and
- (ii) the content

In legal terminology the above refer respectively to:

- (i) equivalence and
- (ii) equivalence and correspondence

Equivalence is granted, provided that the programme has comparable admission requirements, length of studies and student evaluation criteria with respect to those of the state universities of Cyprus. Equivalence and correspondence is granted against a specific field of studies if the individual student has adequately covered what is considered to be the prototype curriculum for the particular field of studies.

With respect to the above named programmes, their potential recognition of equivalence refers to qualifications obtained by students who have commenced or will commence their studies during the period September 2024 – August 2027. Six months before the expiry of the accreditation of the programme, the institution that offers it should submit the questionnaire with all the relevant information for the purpose of reevaluation. In the case of non-submission of the questionnaire, the programme will be removed from the list of approved distance learning programs.

It is understood that during this period the conditions subject to which KY.S.A.T.S. has reached the above decision for recognition, will continue to hold. Otherwise, it reserves the right to alter its decision.

The Council will ask the students to submit together with their applications, specimens of coursework, examinations and dissertations.

Thanking you for your response and cooperation in this process,

For the Council

Yours sincerely,

Emeritus Professor Constantinos Christou
Chairman, KY.S.A.T.S.
