The Malta Qualifications Council announces that following the alignment of the Malta Qualifications Framework with that of the United Kingdom in 2010, the level rating of all holders of the ACCA qualification is now rated at Level 7.

The effective date for this level rating is 1st September 2011. However, for holders of the qualification who had qualified prior to this date and were issued a level rating at Level 6, a fresh statement with a Level 7 rating will be issued if they wish to apply at the Malta Qualifications Recognition Information Centre.
